One hour consultation with any of our lawyers	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Every first-time buyer of NFT is entitled to one appointment of a free consultation only (the "Session"). Session is not applicable to buyers within the secondary market (which means that the NFT is non transferrable to a second client). Al Tamimi & Company ("ATCO") facilitate the operational aspects of the Session by connecting participants with ATCO's Law experts. Please note that we will offer a free consultation which should not be construed as legal advice In accordance with our legal capability in the 10 jurisdictions we operate (UAE, Bahrain, Egypt, Morocco, Oman, Qatar, Kuwait, Jordan, Iraq and Saudi Arabia). The Sessions are allocated on a first come first served basis and there are only a limited number of appointments available. The purpose of the Sessions are to identify issues you may have as a participant. This session is subject to us successfully completing our compliance checks. We would need to obtain from you all necessary information to enable us to conduct AML/KYC and conflict of interest searches. The Session is a free one hour session and will not include drafting, reviewing, and preparing contracts, agreements or any other written legal advice or opinion. You cannot rely on the Session as legal advice for any ongoing or future legal issue you have. We will spend up to one hour free of charge, and following end of the session we will discuss with you our fees for your particular matter, and onboard you as a new client. Neither ATCO nor any other affiliate of ATCO accepts any responsibility for any loss which may arise from reliance on information provided by the Law experts during the sessions. These sessions are not intended to create a lawyer-client relationship.
